SELEM SLEEPER, Town Treasurer.

Unity, March 1, 1892.

Report of the Trustee of the Keyes Fund.

Total amount of fund,	$5,454 47
Which is invested as follows:
Connecticut River Savings Bank,	$2,218 94
Sullivan Savings Institution,	2,343 25
Public Guaranty Savings Bank,	81 28
Note of Albert L. Lane,	280 50
Note of Herman J. Lane,	130 50
Note of town of Unity,	400 00
Total,	$5,454 47

Dividends have been received as follows :

Rec'd of I. W. Quimby, interest on note,	$	47
Connecticut River Savings Bank, May dividend,		55 45
" " November dividend,		44 36
Lydia Walker, interest on note,		2 42
Public Guaranty Savings Bank, July dividend,		4 81
Sullivan Savings Institution, January dividend,		114 86
Albert L. Lane, interest on note,		14 06
Herman J. Lane, " "		6 54
Total,		<hr/> $242 97 <hr/>

In view of the fact that the portion of the Keyes fund invested in savings banks will probably pay smaller dividends than heretofore, it is suggested that the tax which the town derives therefrom be hereafter appropriated for school purposes. It certainly is not in accord with the spirit of the last will of Edward Keyes for the town to use any part of the income of his estate for other than school purposes; hence the above suggestion, which it is hoped the town will cheerfully adopt.

BELA GRAVES, Trustee.

Unity, March 1, 1892.

SCHOOL REPORT.

There have been maintained in town during the year, seven schools. The general condition and progress of all the schools has been very satisfactory. There certainly have been no failures and though the results have not been equally satisfactory in all cases, there has been a very marked improvement in the general tone, spirit and interest exhibited by the scholars in their work as well as much progress in methods of teaching in many of the schools. In short, while we can see many chances for improvement, we think our schools compare favorably with others similarly situated, and are making a fair and steady advance in the direction of thorough, uniform, and systematic work.

We are often asked if the Normal School training is necessary to make a good teacher. We answer, no. The Normal School cannot supply the requisite faculty to teach or govern, and we know good teachers that have not had normal training, but knowledge of normal methods, and the science of teaching are quite essential, and are likely to make a good teacher a better one.

The Board have endeavored to run the schools with an intelligent economy and to know as nearly as possible the worth of each teacher, and the progress of every school, and so far as possible individual scholars; to be of service in matters of discipline and general oversight; but honest efforts on the part of the Board and faithful service on the part of teachers, are not all the requirements for the most successful results in the schools.

Personal interest of citizens and parents, an intelligent knowledge of the work done in the school room, are essential helps and encouragement to teachers and scholars; such a knowledge may remove prejudices and be an incentive to industry.

Parents should make it their business to drop in during the regular working hours of the school ; to be at a general exercise or examination is well, but not enough. An interested overseer is around when the workmen are in their working clothes and the regular work going on, rather than at dress parade. if he wants to judge of their capacity and quality of work.

Parents should be interested enough to have their scholars attend regularly ; not go two or three days, and then stay out a week ; but attend every day, unless detained at home by sickness. If parents and guardians were as much interested in having scholars attend regularly as they are in finding fault with the school board, because they do not happen to do just as everyone thinks, we believe we would have better attendance, and better schools all through town.
